A universal, metaphorical tale to help us overcome our fear of others.

Once upon a time, there a world... where the Blues lived on one side and the Green on another. Except one day, the Blues and the Greens met. The Blues turned green with fear and the Greens turned blue. Panic! War was declared, and cannons, tanks, walls built until the entire world lay in darkness. Would the Blues and the Greens ever see the light again, and welcome color back into their world -- new colors, for building a new world together?

A book with two-page spreads that unfold surprises, cut-outs, and coloring games. A tactile delight for toddlers!
