An appealing and whimsical psychoanalyst is entrusted with a Roma child who seems have surprising powers...

Elie is a psychoanalyst with rather unorthodox methods who specializes in immigrant communities. Aging and disillusioned, he has worked at the same clinic for decades. There he meets young Yuri, a Roma immigrant from Romania who was picked up begging on the streets. But as soon as professionals try to help the child, strange events start happening. Yuri is suspected of having special gifts. Elie is a regular customer at Samuel's thrift store. Yuri sets himself up in Elie's apartment and Samuel's shop, and where he performs his first healings. Is the exiled Yuri a new god?
