A beautiful picture book full of hope, emphasizing the importance of solidarity and strength in numbers.

One morning, Toto and Jibi get a letter evicting them from their house. And so they leave their beloved home behind, setting off in search of a new place to life. For their building is already full; they must find somewhere else. But where? Who can they turn to for help? Just one unfortunate encounter and they end up trapped and thrown in jail.

But they are not alone...
