A lively picture book for learning about Mozart and the bird that inspired his opera The Magic Flute.

Let's learn about history through the eyes of an animal! This is the story of Mozart's starling Lorenz, his inspiration for The Magic Flute and the character of Papageno. Thanks to this beautifully illustrated picture book, young readers can immerse themselves in the world of classical music and opera, all through the naive eyes of a bird. Lively, poetic writing subtly blends music and the animal world, bringing to light a little known fact in the life of the great composer.
