My future was set. I never thought my dreams would come true so soon. Nor imagined how much I'd regret my destiny as heir to the throne...

Kylian, crown prince of the Fire Kingdom, has got it all. Handsome, tall, muscular, attractive, he's all set up to become worthy king... If only he cared, even a little, and and possess a gift of Fire worthy of his name. His youngest brother, Samir, will stop at nothing to ensure the future of their realm, even make a pact with a Djinn, those cursed, evil creatures.

Unfortunately, every act has consequences. The Djinn tightens his hold over the kingdom, putting everyone in danger. Kylian must undertake a quest. En route, he meets the scintillating Cora, a pirate with quite a temper. Buccaneering and skulduggery ensue in this tribute to eastern folklore.
