A magnificent journey with the wolves of the Mongol steppes.

On the vast Mongolian steppes, nomads have made camp for winter. Curious, cautious, the wolf watches its new neighbors. Humans and animals cross paths, trade glances, and sing in unison, each wondering about the other. Will their children perpetuate the wordless bond between them? This magnificent poem by Mickaël El Fathi enchants us with its steady rhythms, resounding in the sumptuous landscapes by Odile Santi. color and light exalt nature, enhanced by the large format of this coffee table book that encourages to lose themselves in the images.
