When the city stirs from slumber, it listens, and with every breath it draws, whispers of stories and wonders...

A stroll through a city, its days and seasons, in which readers will find that every city has multiple facets: their people, buildings, lights... To see them, all you have to do is stop and look. The illustrations with their bold colors and graphics lend a touch of modernity to the visuals, while the simple yet poetic and evocative writing puts words to the feelings stirred by this urban stroll. The city is bohemian, dreamy, playful, and above all, alive.
