Maybe I'll find my daddy in a can of sardines? This is the adventure of a little boy looking for his father.

On his first day of school, a little boy doesn't know what to say when the other kids ask about his father: he's never had one. "My daddy went back to the sea, because he's a fish", he announces proudly. He tries very hard to convince everyone that this is true, himself most of all! When they accuse him of lying, he goes to the sea, hoping to find his father...
