How does the youth of today see their place in this uncertain world? Swinging from doubt to conviction, Freaked and Rager, two sisters, desperately seek to make sense of their existence, each in her own way.

Clara, aka Freaked, is morbidly fascinated by today's world, in all its complexity, absurdity and horrors. She is thoughtful, level-headed... and totally petrified, incapable of finding meaning in her art of photography. Axelle, aka Rager, is a little more down-to-earth. She prefers to roll up her sleeves and join battle. The quarrels between the two sisters reflect the suffering of a generation that swings between resignation and obstinate hope.
