A totally fresh and ironic take on the classic story of searching for a prince with a charmingly caustic and uncompromising heroine

Once upon a time, a princess kept waiting for her Prince Charming in vain. Her mother told her to be patient and make herself pretty for the big day. But when the day finally came, what a disappointment the prince turned out to be! The princess realized his sole wish was to make her a housewife. How awful! So she decided to take matters into her own hands. She set off to have her own adventures. She caught a dragon, fought an ogre, even won a tournament! Who needs a prince anyway?
