A book of resources to help teens better understand one of the great issues of our era.

The issues of sexual harassment and sexual violence are at the center of a heated debate, as our society comes to understand the extent to which we lack awareness of other human beings in our relationships. This book lists and explains words and expressions relating to harassment to a teenage audience. Here, teenagers will find advice and recommendations for further reading: books and websites to help them not only to identify and manage uncomfortable situations, but also to move away from stereotypes.
