With great humor and sensitivity, these two hilarious tales explore the relationships between girls and boys beyond the stereotypical differences, painting an affectionate portrait of children ages 7-10.

This book can be read front to back or back to front, inviting readers to explore new perspectives. Anne Percin's Underwear Day tells the story of a girl named Corinne who wakes up to find herself transformed into a boy named Corentin! In Thomas Gornet's I'm Wearing Panties, Corentin has to deal with everyone calling him... Corinne! These sidesplitting bodyswapping stories help children see the world from a different gender at an age when a sense of gender roles is developing rapidly under the influences of adult behavior and the school environment.
