A sensitive and heartwarming story of friendship.

Sabrina leads a quiet life in Toulon. The restaurant she opened is already a hit. But sometimes, once the day is over, she feels lonely. Especially ever since Capucine, her best friend from childhood, went off to live in Stockholm. Still, distance hasn't kept the two friends from staying in touch. Theirs is a bond nothing can break. Until one day Capucine learns she has breast cancer. After the initial shock, she digs in her heels and decides to fight, backed by her family and her friend Sabrina.
