A powerful melodrama about the end of a king's reign, deep in Central Africa in the late 1980s.

In Gbado, Africa, the decaying capital of the T'Zee empire, rumors are spreading.

The old dictator has been assassinated. After a lifetime of massacres and conquests, T'zee has made his share of friends and enemies alike. Even in his own family, there is dissension and disarray. What can he do when faced with such chaos?
