An essential guide to preparing your children for a growing family.

Relationships within a sibling group create many jealousies and conflicts that must be better understood in order to be better managed. Véronique Maciejak reveals the issues at stake in sibling relationships and proposes solutions to help every member of the family grow and learn.

In this guide, you will find:

- The perspectives of children and parents on the relationship between brothers and sisters
 - Answers to questions about birth order, rivalries, conflicts, etc.
 - Tools for empathetic listening and managing emotions
 - Activities to cultivate harmony at home
 - An activity book to strengthen family togetherness
