A sweet story about getting along better with a kid brother or sister, with advice and helpful insights for parents.

One morning, a cute little creature bursts into Swan's life: a little sister! She's as tiny as an ant, but always in the way, like an elephant! Luckily, with patience and tenderness, both will find their place in the world. A sweet story about getting along better with a kid brother or sister, with advice and helpful insights for parents.

Héloïse Junier, a successful author and child psychologist, works with families and conceived of the series "Stories for Calming Down" to help young children and their parents through big moments and everyday difficulties. Find her online at @lapsycontreattaque and heloisejunier.com
