This book and its accompanying CD, reminiscent of Alice in Wonderland, sensitively address family tensions through a child's eyes.

Arthur's parents fight a lot and the little boy believes he is to blame. His poetic imagination and powerful feelings make him set out in search of a shell able to swallow the storm raging inside his house, between his parents. Like Alice in an underwater Wonderland, he will meet a vast array of colorful characters, from an octopus who can heal things to a hermit crab who can vacuum up harmful thoughts.
