This 12-song book with CD encourages young readers to think about children's rights around the world, raising awareness of citizenship and freedom.

The CD-book We Are World Citizens sends a message of peace and optimism that will speak to children. These 12 original pop songs about children's rights around the world, sung by a children's chorus, celebrate 30 years of the treaty that inspired them: the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (OHCHR). The songs, which can be enjoyed alone or in a group, raise awareness of citizenship and freedom. The book, with its colorful illustrations, helps children understand their rights and learn about tolerance, sharing, and living together. We are all citizens of the world!
