This book recounts the lives of over eighty exceptional women from every land and era, women who made history.

Explorers, scientists, high-level athletes, freedom fighters: this book explores the lives of 86 incredible women. Their biographies are structured like adventure stories, drawing readers into the subject matter and helping them identify with the women's achievements and struggles. "Kididoc: Heroines" has a playful format with over 100 questions and answers, comics, and games to bring these stories to life. The graphic design and writing in these books are specifically tailored the target age group. Biographies of famous women, a powerful subject still new to novelty books, receive a spectacular presentation in this series.
