"A book for teaching young children about conflict, without saying too much. They will understand why the two tribes start fighting, and in the end, come to live together, in peace."

Once upon a time, there was a country where two tribes dwelled: one very, very tall and the other very, very small. But when it came to showing each other who was mightiest, neither proved short on ingenuity! One country, two tribes. But what if... they could live together?

La poule qui pond publishes books suited to children with dyslexia or learning disorders. Our picture books are fully syllabified for ease of reading.
