Philippe Jalbert's illustrations have the power to take readers on an incredible journey, making this large-format book a poetic, playful delight.

In this extremely original look-and-find title, a pair of squirrels are trying to find their baby amongst cleverly hidden animal families and creatures that don't belong in the setting. In total, there are more than 100 animals and intruders waiting to be discovered in this fascinating and extraordinarily thriving forest. A glorious book for learning how to recognize forest animals while also having fun!
