A parody of totalitarianism teens can understand, and a winning homage to George Orwell's Animal Farm.

Lilly the boar has always lived free, with her family, deep in the woods. But one particularly harsh winter, the leader of the boars makes a radical pronouncement: no more wounded! Only "normal" boars! Lilly isn't about give into such nonsense. She flees with her partner and her mother, soldiers hot on their heels. A perilous journey begins, and Lilly will need all her wit and courage in her struggle against oppression.
