Manage your emotions with this music in the introductory Zanimomusic series of books and CDs!

Tom-Tom spots a bee. Help! He's scared! How will he ever manage to get away from it? By scooter, police car, train, and even... rocketship?! But the bee doesn't want to sting him--it just wants to be friends? A book full of sounds introducing little ones to rhythm (slow and fast) and the sounds of daily life. Children will delight in meeting an unexpected friend even as their musical appreciation is awakened. Zanimomusic's series of sound books are specifically designed to foster a child's musical and physical intelligence through sensory stimulation. Four titles in the series are available so far.
