A sensitively told book and CD adaptation the classic Nordic folktale "The Bear Who Stole the Sun" by Paul-Jacques Bonzon.

In the Far North, legend has it that in winter, a bear steals the sun. Peter and Sigrid set out in search of it. Along the way, they meet a blue fox and a big caribou, the king of the forest. With great sensitivity, acting duo Domitille and Amaury retell a legend emblematic of Arctic cultures. Filled with sweetness and wonder, this folktale will foster imagination, patience, and musical awareness among children! With watercolor illustrations by Anna Emilia Laitinen, inspired by the landscapes of her native Finland.
