An entertaining nonfiction series for learning about our amazing endangered species, with plenty of facts and beautiful illustrations.

By tracing the path that winds from one page to another, children can choose what they will read next by deciding which elephant they want to follow. Each time they open the book, a new reading experience awaits!

Would you like to follow the herd marching single file, or witness the birth of a calf? Take a bath in the river or approach the village?

Lots of interesting and complex facts are simply and entertainingly explained, to teach readers everything they want to know about elephants!

Scientific fact-checking provided by Elephant Haven, the European Elephant Sanctuary.
