Sometimes the winner doesn't always come in first!

In African savannah, Pangolin and Honey Badger are fighting over wild beehives. With his thick coat of fur, Pangolin isn't afraid of bee stings. One day, the two animals decide to see which one should be allowed to keep on savouring the delicious honey. The challenge is on! Honey badger plans to set a trap for Pangolin in order to beat him... Includes an appendix of animal facts for curious readers! Also available in the same series from the same author: How Kiwis Lost Their Wings and The Night Loris Copied Cobra.
