The Earth Speaks

Author: Pierre Rabhi

Publisher : Albin Michel

Category : Humanities and Non-Fiction

Genres : Ecology

Keywords : Industry - Exploitation - Agriculture - Earth - Male gaze

Our fate as a species is intimately, irrevocably connected to the Earth's.

The Earth Speaks takes stock of a civilization that, in the name of conquering the planet, mutilates, tortures, and desecrates it. The protagonist Tyemoro expresses the suffering and neglect of traditional peoples of the global south, victimized by the catastrophic logic of industrial agricultural production. With a preface by violinist Yehudi Menuhin.
