"Beloved both by young readers and their parents, this book has sold 15,000 copies in France, with the series already adapted into 52 11-minute TV episodes!"

When Jean-Michel becomes a superhero for a day by taking an injured little rabbit to the hospital, his eyes meet those of Nurse Gisèle, a stunning camel. He is so overcome with passion he starts stammering. What on Earth has happened to him? It must be true love. But how can he tell her what he is feeling? He seeks advice from friends, but all his attempts at meeting Gisèle come to nothing, because every single time, he gets tongue-tied! Finally, he manages to write her a letter. Gisèle is so sorry she didn't understand what he was trying to say: she is deaf, and only uses sign-language to talk!
