"Not everyone's lucky enough to grow up in a family that's open about sex. I picked this book because it covers all the bases with humor and a light touch."

It's time we discussed sex openly and honestly with teens. Chloé Thibaud is here to answer all their questions about sexuality in a book that knows no taboos or hang-ups, a book for teens who want to feel positive about themselves. Do my privates look normal? What's a period, anyway? Are love and lust the same thing? How do I know when to say yes and give my consent?

A handy guide to getting past sexist, heteronormative stereotypes, here at last is a book to teach us all about our bodies, respecting other people's, and loving ourselves just as we are. No more secrets, no more taboos: sex ed affects all of us!
