A female Billy Elliot, rugby-style!

In Angèle's family, rugby runs in the blood. But only for boys, which proves highly frustrating for Angèle, the only girl, surrounded by three brothers. Reluctantly, she must defer to the dreams of her mother, a former classical dancer. But when dance class gets canceled for a few weeks, she seizes the chance to secretly don a rugby jersey and live out her own dreams on the pitch! Not that things are going to be that easy: figuring out where she belongs on the team, hiding her hobby from her parents... For Angèle, victory is far from assured!
