Happiness is oh so simple: a tune played on an accordion, and friends clapping hands!

Emma is short, with brown eyes and brown hair, just like everybody else. But mainly, she is shy and always picks the wrong kind of underwear, ones that make you squirm all day long. She's rehearsing for the school Christmas show, but just can't stand the thought of dancing in the front row, amidst all the glitter and balloons. Fortunately, her passion for the accordion encourages her to be more confident and to find her own place.
