A beautiful, audacious picture book about creativity!

A little girl goes for a walk with her thoughts, inspiration, and discoveries. The path of creation is endless... Will the little girl ever find her own way as she wanders through the arts? A World to Invent illustrates the discovery of Art – music, literature, film, but also drawing and architecture... Each spread showcases a different artistic discipline, showing how rich and diverse creation can be.

An introduction to art in all its forms!
