A storybook introducing readers to manga as a style. Five traditional Japanese tales, beautifully illustrated in black and white.

This book presents five traditional Japanese tales translated into French, with black and white illustrations and supplementary pages providing context to better understand the traditions surrounding them.

- "The Tale of the Crane"
- "Hoichi the Earless"
- "Kachi-Kachi Mountain"
- "Sanmai no Ofuda"
- "Urashima Tarō"

Bilingual edition: French and Japanese.

A prolific mangaka in Japan, Yoshimi Katahira moved to France fifteen years ago and now makes a living from painting and teaching manga workshops. Her work can often be found in galleries. Ohanashi is her first book published in France.
