The datebook for a fulfilling and sustainable life as a couple.

A datebook for couples to fill in as they meet once a month to spend a special moment together. Guided by a variety of questions and advice, both members of the couple will share their experiences and complete a report on the month that has elapsed: What were the most beautiful moments? Their failures? A compliment that touched them? A word that hurt?

After that, they can prepare for the month ahead. The twelve months of the year are presented with their various special occasions: the new year, holidays... This notebook is also a beautiful object in and of itself, making us want to open it every up month and keep going back to it as we look for answers.
