An science-fictional thriller that condemns colonialism past, present, and future.

With his longstanding activism and his doctorate in information and communication sciences, critically acclaimed noir author (Leur âme au diable from Gallimard's Série Noire) Marin Ledun has developed a special bond with the Marquesas Islands and the Marquesans.

A fast-paced thriller about the fight for survival, where violence—physical, individual, and institutional—is everywhere.

A novel that questions the notion of civilization, coupled with a reflection on social control and the colonial legacy. Strong YA themes: the duty to disobey, a people's right to self-determination, the freedom to love.
