Butterflies are among children's favorite insects! This 45th title in our series is the perfect introduction: simple, funny, and full of pictures!

Professor Tatsu Nagata has bent over backward to find out everything there is to know about butterflies! Thanks to him, readers can learn all about these insects who feed on flower nectar. Did you know one species, the monarch, will travel thousands of miles for food? Sparse text and graphics full of humor and well-researched facts. On Professor Nagata's adventures, children laugh and learn at the same time!
