A poignant picture book about the quest to be true to yourself.

Louve wakes up one morning with the feeling that this is it: it's time for her to grow up! She goes to the woods alone to think. Who is she, really? Whom does she want to become? Her thoughts unwind... she thinks about her family and her father, who has passed away. At the foot of her favorite tree, she writes three letters in which she unburdens herself of everything that might weigh her down and prevent her from moving on.
