A sweet, joyful book with endearing characters, a reminder that friendship and uniqueness are precious gifts.

Today, Lili is throwing a big party... A sock party! Tina, her best friend, is eager to get ready, but... there's a hole in the sock she wanted to wear! What if... she wore two different socks? Off she goes! On her way to the party, Tina hears her friends, animal and human alike, making fun of her, and runs off to hide. What will Lili think?
