Enter a wonderful world of poetry and music!

Bonaventure, his cousin Susie, Salvador, Piotr, and Lalie the otter are still neighbors. Each of them, with their own senses of humor and poetry, discover the music and melodies hidden in everyday life: a match being struck, a candy wrapper being crumpled, all the noises you hear when fishing, or just the beautiful tonalities of a good burp. And all these sounds come together in a joyful, simple moment with friends around the fire.

A light read by Alex Cousseau and Charles Dutertre that will make you laugh and give you goosebumps, revealing the beauty and poetry of everything around you.
