A charming, cheerful book—like a birthday present in and of itself!

Today is Elmo's birthday, but he doesn't like drawing too much attention to himself. Besides, everyone's forgotten, right? So he decides to go for a long walk alone to take advantage of the fine weather. Along the way, nature showers him with countless little gifts: a pretty pebble, a splendid sunset, a bit of daydreaming by the riverside. When his day is done, Elmo uncharacteristically finds himself wishing that he'd had a party after all. But his stuffed cats haven't forgotten, and they have a lovely surprise awaiting him at nightfall.

Elmo's previous adventure, Tea from Rainwater, sold more than 4,000 copies in five months and was a huge hit with Instagrammers in France.
