With a new chapter on the 2022 World Cup in Qatar.

A nonfiction comic about the history of the World Cup through thirty unforgettable moments. Legendary episodes and anecdotes little-known to larger audiences tell the epic tale of soccer from 1930 to the present. From Matthias Sindelar to Neymar, Maracana Stadium to Diego Maradona, this book takes in every field played on in international competition, proving that soccer is more than a mere sporting event, with economic and political stakes.

Revised and expanded edition includes the 2022 World Cup.
