What if office life could be a little more... whimsical?

Lucie is a market analyst in a sprawling energy trading company. But above all else, she is poetically minded and loves to watch other people in action. She and two colleagues will work to bring enchantment into office life by putting into practice an old saying: "irrational situations call for irrational solutions." What with motivation seminars and internal competitions meant to spur innovation, Lucie finds a way to move Franck, a homeless Nietzsche fan, and Robert, a contemplative iguana, into a disused meeting room. The daily lives of one and all will be irremediably transformed...
