Springboard your way to countless tales with this playful, comical way to concoct imaginary jobs!

In this large spiral-bound notebook, Sandra Poirot Cherif presents the extraordinary trades practiced by her fabulous thirty-odd eccentrics. By flipping the various panels of this mix-and-match book, readers can make 19,683 different characters. And on the facing page, corresponding phrases surface in random order, delivering such fanciful combinations as: "A diver with a cold / hides a love letter / after drinking a big glass of strawberry milk." Each image/phrase pairing proves comical and surprising. A wonderfully inspiring way to kick off your own stories... This guide to jobs that don't exist is an inexhaustible source of imaginary characters.
