A delightful dive into the thousand and one ways to approach writing.

In a style of great delicacy and restraint, as joyful as it is poignant, The Copywriter recounts the efforts of a woman in her quest for the right word.

Like a documentary, this book gives access to the intimate experience of a woman's writing, a woman who has earned a living writing for others. Readers will look on in wonder at a lifestyle all about writing in every way, shape, and form, from the most everyday language to writing for radio, advertising copy to poetry, and even embroidery!

A must for any budding writer, and a treat for all lovers of letters.
