Four sensitive stories that bring both childhood and Japan to life.

Here are four new stories that Kotimi took from her childhood in Tokyo, in the 1970s. We thus experience Hanami, when the cherry trees blossom. Then it's time to go back to school, with the fear of losing friends and the joy of making new ones. These stories are acidic and sometimes direct, like another story in which we follow Momoko to the special center where Miyuki, her little handicapped sister, is also going back to school... Ongoing series, 3 titles published, the 4th to be published in 2024.
