A spectacular circus show where the images come to life, as if by magic!

This is the story about little girl with a pretty incredible family. They all work in the circus and they each have a unique talent. Her brother is a juggler, her sister is a ribbon dancer and her mother is queen of the balance board. But the little girl never seems to succeed at anything. Fortunately, her mother is there to help her realize where her talent lies: making people laugh! This enchanting book features kinograms: by moving the overlay, the images come to life, as if by magic.
