The first volume of a magical saga: a pulse-pounding, mystery-filled dive into the world of esotericism.

Marseille, 1850: Pytha is a young beggar who has learned to rely only on herself. But one day, Providence places a mysterious divinatory oracle on her path.

Each time she draws a card, she falls into a world of mists and strange silhouettes toying with the future before her eyes. Thanks to this magic deck, Py discovers a quest awaits her: a journey toward the secrets of her past.

But the oracular cards are a coveted item, and it will take Pytha a great deal of courage to dodge the traps Chance strews in her path. For Chance loves nothing better than to thwart Destiny...
