When teenage Gabriel hangs out with his new friends in the woods, smoking and talking, they all get shot dead one by one... except for Gabriel.

It all starts with a group of teenaged boys hanging out in the forest, until danger rears its head and they start getting taken out one by one. But the mysterious murderer seems to want to spare one of them: Gabriel. And so begins a frantic chase through the forest between teenager and killer. Over the course of this pursuit, all of Gabriel's secrets are revealed in a series of twists and turns about his past, how his band of friends came to be, and how the tragedy now underway came to pass.
