He's shy and retiring. She's an outgoing party girl. Unfortunately for him, he's in love. She turns his life upside down... for better or for worse!

Freshly admitted to his first year of law school in Lyon, Noah discovers that life on a student budget isn't all it's cracked up to be. Campus life obeys the law of the jungle. The fact that he lacks confidence and has a body skinny as an asparagus won't help. But then he bumps into Armelle. Whimsical, atypical, shameless, she's everything he's not. She might as well be from another galaxy. He falls in love at once. To please her, he starts drinking, smoking, going out, at the risk of failing his first year... Every time he comes out of his shell, she grows more and more inconsistent and mysterious. What is she so desperately hiding?
