A unique novel; fascinating, unclassifiable and profound. Superb writing of metamorphosis and strangeness, invention, symbolism and the imaginary. A story that borrows from pure fantasy to evoke the childhood of Moon, the vixen, and from the initiatory quest to map out her life she crosses paths with the ghost of Zelda Fitzgerald, and Patti Smith! A story that borrows from thrillers to tell the tale of Christof the Fox's struggle against the shadows that haunt him in Central Park.
